The Coaches

Jamaica's Head Coach Hue Menzies was born in England but moved to the United States at age 16. He got his USSF A coaching license and became the assistant of U-19 USWNT in 2004. In 2008 he worked at the Youth Central Florida United as coaching director and in 2012 became Executive Director of the Florida Kraze Krush. In 2013 he became Jamaica's Women's National Team adviser, and in 2015 was appointed as the new coach but months later failed to qualify the team to the Olympics. In 2018 he gathered the group again after two "off" years to play at the CONCACAF qualifiers for the World Cup, where the team booked their ticket to the competition for the first time in their history.
